(b) Work at national level

Plan International Finland
Campaign Coordinator and Project Manager for No Hate Speech Movement (02/2013-12/2014)

I coordinated, managed and developed one of the biggest anti-hate speech project in Finland which includes 50 human rights activists and 50 members at the National Campaign Committee in Finland. My job is to raise awareness about what is hate speech and how to tackle it. My task is also to mainstream and establish anti-hate speech as part of the youth work and education by training, by acting as an expert and consultant and advocacy work.

Save the Children, Helsinki, FinlandAdvisor Anti-Racism and Multicultural Issues (05/2009 - 02/2013)

I coordinated and developed one of the biggest anti-racism projects in Finland. My job was to mainstream and establish anti-racism as part of the youth work and education by training, by acting as an expert and consultant and advocacy work.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs, The Development Policy Committee, Helsinki, FinlandAssistant (12/2008 – 04/2009)

I was assisting the secretary general of The Development Policy Committee. The Committee evaluates the quality and effectiveness of development cooperation work and monitors the level of public funding for development cooperation. My task was to collect and analyze background material; writing and editing reports; organizing seminars and meetings; keeping minutes of the meetings; communication with stakeholders; and update the website.

(c) International workAction Aid International, Head Office, International Education Department, London, UK*Assistant (07/2008 – 10/2008)

My task was to design new website, and draft text and content (new and existing) to be uploaded on the site. Assist in identifying areas for strategic research and advocacy briefs. Organize and follow-up on meetings. Conduct research on specific topics (the right to education for girls and women; and the right to education for migrants and refugees). Compile information for the website and esp. taking the joint lead on the design and content of a constitutional rights database on right to education, as well as a database on international human rights law and the right to education. Contribute to conceptualizing and shaping a new website on the right to education (www.right-to-education.org).

ChildHope UK, LondonAssistant (11/2007 – 06/2008)

I worked as an assistant for Asia programme manager and I was supporting the whole Programmes team. My main tasks were to do research and analysis in terms of child rights; editing reports and proposals to donors; project containment; and evaluation and monitoring of the ChildHope's projects.
